PIERRE HURMIC

Mayor of Bordeaux

From June 14 to 18, 2023, the city of Bordeaux will host the 24th edition of the European Corporate Sport Games. Our city is proud to host such a competition: this large-scale event will bring together between 7,000 and 10,000 employees of European companies for a variety of sporting events with more than 30 disciplines represented. The city will make its local sports facilities available so that the event can take place in the best possible conditions. The city's sports policy has a clear goal: to guarantee access to sports for the well-being and development of all. Sport is a great tool for social cohesion, and I am proud that our city is hosting this unifying European sporting event. I wish the event a great success.

DIDIER BESSEYRE

President of the European Corporate Sport Federation

Bordeaux has been selected to host the 2023 European Corporate Sport Games following a strong commitment from the French Corporate Sport Federation, a shared enthusiasm and dynamic with the city of Bordeaux, representatives of local authorities, the tourism industry and of course local economic and sports partners. Bordeaux is a charming city with an international reputation. It benefits from many high-quality sports facilities, as well as accommodation perfectly adapted to the configuration of our Games, with easy access and public transport. The concept of the "Games in the city" of the Bordeaux 2023 edition will thus satisfy practical, logistical, proximity and conviviality criteria. We look forward to seeing you in 2023 to discover Bordeaux, its wine region and the special atmosphere of this city through its architecture, gastronomy, culture and climate. We look forward to welcoming you to Bordeaux for another memorable edition of our Games, combining sporting performance, tourist pleasure and festivities.

ALAIN ANZIANI

President of Bordeaux Metropole, Mayor of Mérignac

In 2023, Bordeaux Metropole will be delighted to host, after so many other European cities, the European Corporate Sport Games. We will celebrate sport in all its disciplines before the Rugby World Cup 2023 in the fall. For three days, Bordeaux Metropole will be the place to be for our amateur athletes from all over Europe. Our metropolitan area, in the heart of the Gironde, benefits from tourist assets that will charm the participants between two sports tournaments. The variety of our natural and urban landscapes and our many high-level sports facilities will undoubtedly leave a good memory in the minds of our European athletes. We look forward to sharing this festive and friendly time with you!

A TERRITORY IN ACTION

AN ECOLOGICALLY RESPONSIBLE EVENT

Like any human activity, the organization of a major sporting event can have negative effects on the environment that are essential to reduce or even reverse.

The Organizing Committee of the 24th European Corporate Sport Games is doing its utmost to offer a more environmentally friendly and inclusive event.

Indeed, sports events, and more particularly major international sports events, have a duty to set an example. They also serve to sustainably shape the behavior and habits of spectators, athletes and partners, thus contributing to the evolution of social norms and reducing the environmental footprint of participants.

A comprehensive action plan is in place to promote sustainable development. Within this plan, four main axes have been established:

- Reduce the carbon footprint by organizing a 100% "public transport" event.
- Limiting the production of garbage but also enhancing the recycling of waste generated and ensuring effective monitoring of waste recovery and sorting channels.
- Promote a responsible purchasing policy by favoring local and committed actors.
- Involve the event on a societal level by organizing an inclusive event (people with disabilities, gender diversity, young people seeking employment, etc.).

To mark its commitment, the Organizing Committee is a signatory of the charter of fifteen eco-responsible commitments of the Ministry of Sports. Created at the initiative of several major international sporting events, in collaboration with WWF, this charter has already enabled more than 350 international or national events to move towards greater eco-responsibility.

This dynamic is also being pursued within the framework of a European project led by the European Association of Sports Employers (EASE), which aims to build a social charter for sports events. The FFSE and the EFCS are partners in this project alongside the 2023 Rugby World Cup Organizing Committee and the Paris 2024 Olympic and Paralympic Games Organizing Committee.

HANGAR 14 AT THE HEART OF THE ECSG 2023

If there are countless places to have a drink, to eat well and to party in Bordeaux, THE PLACE TO BE will be Hangar 14. At the foot of the city's tramway, located on the banks of the Garonne, the "heart" of the European Games will welcome you from the moment of accreditation and then every day for dance nights and live concerts. You will be able to eat there every evening and enjoy the gastronomic wealth of the region or simply come and have a drink to enjoy the atmosphere and the breathtaking view of the city and the river from the 600 m2 terrace.

The HANGAR 14 will be the starting and finishing point of your European Games. As a gathering place for the opening ceremony parade that will lead you to the mythical Place des Quinconces, the H14 will also host the closing night that, we promise you, will be unforgettable.

GRAND OPENING AND CLOSING CEREMONIES

On Wednesday June 14th, 2023, in the early evening, it will be time to officially start this 24th edition of the European Company Sport Games. The gathering of the thousands of participants will take place right next to HANGAR 14 from where the parade will start along the quays of the Garonne River for one kilometer to reach the famous "Place Des Quinconces".

Lined with trees, this square occupies a vast site of 12 hectares in the center of the city, which makes it the largest square in Europe. It is decorated on the east side by two rostral columns and on the west side by the Monument to the Girondins. Numerous events take place there all year long: River Festival, Wine Festival, Antiques Fair, Pleasure Fair, concerts, circuses, sports events...

The Place des Quinconces hosts all the biggest festive gatherings of the city, and it is quite naturally that the opening ceremony show will be organized there.

GOING OUT IN BORDEAUX AND AROUND BORDEAUX

If Hangar 14 will be the heart of the European Corporate Sport Games, the participants will discover very quickly that the city is full of festive districts where it is good to live. Ideal to have a drink after the sports events and to eat in the countless gastronomic restaurants.

Thanks to an active collaboration with the Tourist Office, participants will also be offered tourist outings with preferential rates before, during and after the European Corporate Sport Games. Discover the history of Bordeaux, visit its museums and neighborhoods. Visit the surrounding vineyards, among the most famous in the world, or go on an excursion to discover the New Aquitaine region, which offers a wide variety of landscapes between countryside, sea and mountains.

DESTINATION BORDEAUX

IN 2007, BORDEAUX WAS LISTED AS A UNESCO WORLD HERITAGE SITE
AND BECAME THE LARGEST URBAN ENSEMBLE SO DISTINGUISHED,
WITH SOME 1,810 HECTARES - NEARLY HALF THE AREA OF THE CITY!
AROUND FIFTEEN YEARS LATER, NEW BUILDINGS HAVE ENRICHED THE HERITAGE
AND COEXIST HARMONIOUSLY WITH THEIR HISTORIC NEIGHBORS.

AN EXCEPTIONAL HERITAGE

An open-air postcard! The city center, only accessible by tramway and bicycles, facilitates travel from one district to another with, always as a common thread, the Garonne River.

Each neighborhood has its own atmosphere! To the north, the Chartrons, a former stronghold of wine merchants, has become that of second-hand dealers, antique dealers, good restaurants and small independent shops. Then here is the vast Place des Quinconces. Behind its plane trees, the Grands Hommes district is a tribute to our thinkers, from Montaigne to Diderot: it is also called the "triangle" for its luxury stores, its mansions and the majestic Grand Théâtre, a masterpiece balance signed Victor Louis. Take a hook on the right and head for rue Sainte Catherine, the longest pedestrian and shopping street in Europe!

A stone's throw away, old Bordeaux: Saint-Pierre is a trendy and gourmet district with its good restaurants and terraces along the squares and pedestrian streets, to visit with your nose in the air to admire the Bordeaux mascarons, these ornaments carved in stone. On the quayside the Place de la Bourse and its majestic 18th century facades delight visitors who come to take THE souvenir photograph of Bordeaux.

The Miroir d'eau - largest mirror in the world - is facing the famous facade and amazes everyone with its beautiful mist show. After a quick jump you might be able to see three monuments that are

NATURE

With multiple gardens, parks, hillsides, forests and nature reserves, more than 200 km of bicycle paths, a navigable river, and a 160 km marked GR® trail. Bordeaux is a serene city that breathes and is the gateway to multiple adventures. Romantic rambles, sporty strolls, walks with the kids, picnics: there are many opportunities in the impressive diversity of Bordeaux's green spaces!

Along the quays, the Jardin des Lumières and the Parc aux Angéliques are real tree-lined corridors.

Near the city center: the Parc Bordelais (which houses the tallest tree in Bordeaux: 48 meters!) and the Jardin Public are unmissable. A few tramway stations away is the ecological reserve of the Barails, which includes the floral park, Bordeaux woods and the surrounding wetlands.

THE BIGGEST MIROIR D'EAU OF THE WORLD!

registered by the UNESCO: the Tour Pey Berland, a beautiful belvedere over the city, the Saint André cathedral and the Rohan palace that is the current city hall. To the south, the Cailhau door and the Grosse Cloche herald Saint-Michel, a cosmopolitan area that seduces visitors with the very much-loved Marché des Capucins and its junk stores. Unmissable stage at the 114 meters high Flèche Saint-Michel.

Then we discover the Place de la Victoire and its perpetual animation, its terraces and bars, which seduce the students. At the ends of the city, two new districts are emerging and redrawing the contours of the city: Bassins à Flot to the north, a former manufacturing center, and Euratlantique to the south, a comprehensive development operation that extends over 738 hectares around the train station and the municipalities of Bègles and Floirac. Head for the right bank, taking the stone bridge built by order of Napoleon I: green, like the Botanical Garden and the urban parks along the quays, it offers an incomparable view of the Port de la Lune and the listed facades. And there are surprises too: a blue lion by Xavier Veilhan, the Niel barracks, the Chaban-Delmas lift bridge inaugurated in 2013...

A BIKE PARADISE

Bordeaux is a flat city (except for the hillsides of the right bank), which is great for bicycle tourism. In 2019, the "Bicycle Cities Index" established by the German start-up Coya ranks Bordeaux as the 12th most bikeable city in the world. The conurbation has 291 km of bike paths and greenways. The Super Bike Routes offer suggestions for 1 to 5 hours rides to explore the city's heritage, nature, vineyards and river.

30 A SPORTING CITY

DESTINATION BORDEAUX

Bordeaux is a dynamic and obviously sporting city! With several major modern or historical sites dedicated to sport, Bordeaux and its suburbs offer a large choice of sporting activities.

The density and diversity of sports facilities, coupled with the know-how and experience of the voluntary sector, supported by the city, make Bordeaux the scene of numerous mass or high-level sporting gatherings every year. The Marathon of Bordeaux, the ATP tennis tournament and the International Jumping take place in Bordeaux every year.

Hosting the European Football Championships in 2016, the Rugby World Cup in 2023 and soccer meetings during the Paris Olympics in 2024 are proof of the region's sporting appeal. There is no doubt that the 24th European Corporate Sport Games will find their place alongside these events!

A DESTINATION COMMITTED TO SUSTAINABLE TOURISM

53% of European take their environmental impact into account when traveling (source Amadeus / Opinium), proof that environmental and societal awareness also affects business and leisure tourism. Bordeaux attracts eco-travelers and is actively committed to sustainable tourism.

Make the Bordeaux metropolis a model and a recognized destination for sustainable tourism is one of the goals of the coming years. Thus, the Bordeaux Metropole Tourist and Convention Office intends to unite all tourism stakeholders in an eco-responsible approach. The year 2020 ended with more than encouraging news for the continuation of this approach: Bordeaux obtained a very good result in the Global Destination Sustainability Index, the main benchmarking program for destinations with sustainable strategies. The city overall score grew from 54 % to 72 % in one year.

Bordeaux now belongs to the most dynamic cities of the world.

This approach is made possible thanks to a solid base of places and actors already committed to sustainable tourism, whether on the social, environmental or ethical level.

A FESTIVE CITY

Having a drink on the terrace, listening to a live concert, dancing in a lively bar or club... Bordeaux nights are full of life and surprises.

Between nightclubs, bars and restaurants, the Bassins à Flot district is the place to be for party people. On the other side of the Garonne, the Chantiers de la Garonne offers a room and a sandy terrace with a breathtaking view of the river. On sunny days, its neighbor, the open-air cafe Chez Aliq, with its country atmosphere and its worldwide music program, is a must.

To enjoy a glass of Bordeaux (and elsewhere!) wine, head to one of the city's many wine bars.

THE LARGEST WINE-GROWING DEPARTMENT IN FRANCE!

BORDEAUX AS AN HEDONIST

Here, we cultivate the art of (well) living. Bordeaux is the city in France with the highest number of restaurants per inhabitant. The choice is vast! High gastronomy places, daring addresses, vegetarian snacks, terraces where to taste tapas with a glass of wine, markets offering regional products...

THE WORLD WINE CAPITAL

With its 65 Protected Designations of Origin, the Gironde is the largest wine-growing department in France and its wines are the dream of wine lovers all over the world. The Cité du Vin, 4th most visited museum in France outside Île-de-France, is a unique place for both its spectacular architecture and its cultural offer.

The Cité du Vin was inaugurated in 2016 after three years of work. Its glass and aluminum iridescent wrapping, imagined by Anouk Legendre and Nicolas Desmazières of the XTU agency, houses a unique next-generation cultural center where wine is presented in its cultural, civilizational, patrimonial and universal dimensions. The place offers a spectacular trip around the world, through the ages, in every culture!

GETAWAYS AROUND BORDEAUX

THE GIRONDE ESTUARY IS ONLY A FLIGHT OF GULLS AWAY:
SECRET ISLANDS, VAUBAN'S LOCK AND ITS THREE FORTIFICATIONS,
THE CITADEL OF BLAYE, THE FORT PATÉ AND THE FORT MÉDOC, CARRELETS - THESE FUNNY FISHING HUTS PLACED ON THE BANKS -
A UNIQUE AND FASCINATING WORLD, TO DISCOVER BY CAR OR ON A RIVER CRUISE FROM BORDEAUX.

TO THE NORTH, THE CHARENTE AND THE POITOU

1 hour 1/2 away: To the north of Bordeaux, the Charente reveals its famous Cognac and Saintes houses. Royan, city of art and history, combines modern Bauhaus architecture and typical villas of the 20s.

Off the coast, the Cordouan lighthouse can be visited at the pace of the tides.

Two hours away: the old port of La Rochelle, its three monumental towers and the arcades of its historic center. At the heart of the city, the Aquarium is one of the largest in Europe. Off the coast, nature escape between land and sea on the islands of Ré, Aix, Madame and Oléron.

Two and a half hours away: going to Poitiers, crossing the Marais Poitevin - largest marsh on the Atlantic coast - go to the Vallée des Singes and Futuroscope.

Halfway between Poitiers and Bordeaux is Angoulême, capital of comics and its facades which give pride of place to drawings and bubbles of all kinds!

TO THE EAST, THE LIMOUSIN, THE PÉRIGORD AND THE LOT-ET- GARONNE

Head east to Limoges where the Adrien Débouché National Museum presents machines and tools linked to the porcelain-making know-how that made the city famous. One and a half hours further east, Aubusson is home to the Cité Internationale de la Tapisserie. Going back down to the Dordogne valley, we come across breathtaking villages such as Collonges-la-Rouge or Rocamadour.

Then let's head to the Périgord, a land full of delights: proud castles, gourmet markets in Sarlat and Périgueux, Bergerac wines and the International Center of Cave Art which houses a full-scale replica of the original Lascaux cave. Going down to the Lot-et-Garonne, Villereal, with its 13th century royal bastide, is classified as the most beautiful village in France. You must pass through Agen, capital of the department. On your way back to Bordeaux you will find Marmande.

Every year in June, the city welcomes more than 160,000 festival-goers for the Garorock festival.

SURFING!

TO THE SOUTH, THE LANDES AND THE PAYS BASQUE

To the south of Bordeaux opens the Landes forest, largest expanse of maritime pine trees in Europe. Bordered by 100 km of magnificent ocean beaches suitable for surfing, it is above a whole land of gastronomy, good living and "férias" in Dax, Mont-de-Marsan, and in all the villages of the Chalosse. The unusual Marquèze Ecomuseum in Sabres takes you back to the 19th century's life of the Landes de Gascogne!

A total change of scene is guaranteed in the Basque Country, with its villages, its sense of celebration, Biarritz and its surf spots and Saint-Jean-de-Luz and its port. In the town of Sare, the little train of the Rhune, an authentic cogwheel train, takes visitors to the top of the Rhune, at an altitude of 905 meters. Exceptional panorama on all the Atlantic Coast and the Pyrenees chain. Further inland, the Béarn region, home of Henri IV, reveals Pau and its British charm, preserved valleys, kingdom of hiking and ski resorts.
