Didier Besseyre
WFCS President

We are excited to have you join us for the prestigious WCSG 2020 event. Greece is the birthplace of Democracy and the Olympic Games. Athens has been twice the proud host of the modern Olympic Games of 1896 and 2004 and is now ready to welcome back the ideals of sporting excellence, respect and fair contest in the same spirit.

The ancient Greeks paid a strong emphasis on living a healthy lifestyle, starting the Olympic Games as a way of demonstrating their fitness. The proverb "Νους ὑγιής ἐν σώματι ὑγιεῖ", "a sound mind is in a sound body" could not be of more relevance in our modern societies characterized with an ever more stressful work-culture.

It is a great privilege for us to be organizing this unique global event bringing together athletes and companies from across the world, preserving and disseminating the values of our forefathers to companies and the corporate environment.

It is the first time that the WCSG are hosted in an Olympic city and that alone is a stepping stone in the young history of this international event. We have compiled an exclusive experience for athletes, allocating the state-of-the-art Olympic Facilities of Athens 2004 combined with outstanding organization and wide-ranging events for a memorable stay.

I wish you an unforgettable trip in this fascinating city and country that will reward you with its hospitality, rich history and Mediterranean climate.

Nikos Kerassovitis
HOCSH President

OLYMPIC ATHLETIC CENTER OF ATHENS

The Olympic Athletic Center of Athens, also known as OACA, is one of the most complete European athletic complexes.

The Main Olympic Stadium is a modern facility, which provides athletes with all the latest amenities. It also includes areas for all the staff that is necessary for organizing major athletic and cultural events. The construction of the Stadium was completed in 1982.

The famous roof, designed by the world-known architect Santiago Calatrava, was added for the Athens 2004 Olympic Games.

Inspired by the model of the ancient Greek meeting place, the Agora is a vaulted, modular structure of light steel, which runs in an arc along the northern edge of the Common Domain, alongside a dual band of water and trees. Enclosing a pedestrian arcade of some 18,600 m² (200,000 sf), the Agora provides a pleasantly shady shelter, with fresh air, for the path and facilities within.

The Nations Wall is a sculpture made of tubular steel. Designed so that it can move mechanically in a wavelike motion, the monumental sculpture is 250m (820ft) long by 20m (66ft). It is designed so that it could serve as a giant screen for projections.

OPENING CEREMONY

Elegance and timeless charm at the Panathenaic Stadium

All the athletes from country-members of the World Federation of Company Sports will participate in a magnificent parade during the Opening Ceremony of the Games. A grandiose festival in a venue proclaimed as the cradle of sports on a global basis. The Panathenaic Stadium is the classical cultural and touristic monument of Greece and one of the most significant monuments not only for Athens, but for the whole Greece. Its rich history is directly connected to the Modern Olympic Games as of their revival in 1896 until the Athens Olympic Games in 2004. It is also the place from where the Olympic flame begins its journey to the cities of the Olympic Games, both Winter, Summer and Youth.

It was in the Panathenaic Stadium that the Olympic Hymn was heard for the first time, with lyrics by poet Costis Palamas and music by composer Spyros Samaras. Throughout the twentieth century the Panathenaic Stadium hosted diverse events, among them pan-Hellenic and international games. In the Athens 2004 Olympic Games, the Panathenaic Stadium hosted the sport discipline of Archery and was the finishing line of the Marathon race, featuring emotion-packed moments and unique experiences for spectators and viewers from all over the world. A creation of the Athenians, as its name proudly proclaims, the Panathenaic Stadium has been the venue for noble competition and fair play, of mind and of body, since Antiquity.

That high regard for the arts continues today, with a mushrooming of modern innovations. Every year, the city's cultural calendar presents exhibits and festivals of international scope, original productions and notable artistic happenings.

SIGHTSEEING

Athens takes the fuss out of sightseeing. It is a user-friendly town thanks to the pleasant demeanor of the English-speaking Athenians and the easy to use and manageable transportation system. The visitor can see a lot in one day. Archaeological Sites & Classical Greek Monuments, Byzantine Monuments & Ottoman Monuments, Museums, Art Galleries, street performances, festivals. For all people visiting Athens, the Acropolis remains a "must see", along with Panathenaic Stadium for the sport's side of ancient history.

THE ACROPOLIS - THE PARTHENON

A monument that constitutes the symbol of Greece worldwide, stands on the "sacred rock" of Athens, the Acropolis. The Parthenon, a marble temple dedicated to Goddess Athena, along with the other monuments of the Acropolis, are all excellent pieces of art, reflecting the Classical period and the Golden Age of ancient Athens in the 5th and 4th centuries B.C.

PANATHENAIC STADIUM

Originally built in the 4th century B.C. for the athletic competitions of the Great Panathinaia (ancient Greek festivities), the Panathenaic Stadium took its final form during its most recent restoration at the end of the 19th century. It is made of marble and the Greeks also call it "Kallimarmaron" (meaning "made of beautiful marble"). It was the venue for the first modern Olympic Games, in 1896.

Do not forget that Athens is one of the few European cities where you can visit a museum during the day and jet off to a nearby island at night.

GETTING AROUND

A state-of-the-art metro system, wide avenues, an efficient public transportation system and a compact city center, all make moving around Athens easy and convenient. The Athens transportation network now includes new buses, pollution-free trolleys, tram and a revamped electric railway system that connects to two metro lines. Visit a beach in Athens and you are likely to feel like you're on a Greek island, as you are greeted with stretches of crystal sands, fine pebbles and breathtaking, blue clean waters. Some beaches boast barren rocks and cliffs that carve caves and coves you can explore. Other beaches have floating bars, music and seaside spas, while others are secluded for romance. Most offer beach amenities, such as lounge chairs, umbrellas, lifeguards, fun playgrounds, restaurants and water sports for all ages.

In Athens, enjoying a sunset stroll or a seaside meal is a part of daily life. Walk on the many Athenian esplanades lined by tropical palm trees. Beach hopping is made possible by the new tramway. Hop-in from the center of Athens and watch the sun set over the Saronic Gulf.

PELOPONNESE & OTHER DESTINATIONS

Monuments from every period of the eventful Peloponnesian history, great archeological sites such as ancient Olympia, Epidaurus, Mycenae and Tirynth, Byzantine churches, unique settlements and amazing castles, natural beauties such as mountains, forests, rivers and caves surrounded by the sea, beautiful beaches, sandy and smooth coasts on the west - rocky and dentelated on the east, make this part of Greek land ideal for holidays, touring, sports and connecting to the history and culture. It is not accidental that especially during the summer season many tourists arrive in Peloponnese from all over the world to travel around it. This trip is very popular and well known.

Peloponnese with its gulfs in Korinthos, Patra, Saronic, Messinia, Argolida and Laconia looks like a plane tree leaf and that is why it was formerly called "Morias". It has dry climate on the east, cold, snow and rich vegetation in its central and mountainous parts and rain and heat on the west.

People settled in Peloponnese since the middle Paleolithic era (circa 100.000 years B.C.). The Greek civilization began during the Copper era and after 2000 B.C. came in the area the First Greeks. Few centuries later, Mycenaeans are the center of Greek world. Excavations verify the legend of Homeric Mycenaeans, while the ruins in Pylos match the references for the well-known King Nestor's palace in west Peloponnese.

In 1200 B.C. Dorian and Aetoli arrive in Peloponnese and construct Korinthos, Argos and Sparta. The Olympic Games where athletes from all over Greece participate take place in Olympia every four years. After centuries, Phillip the Macedonian arrives in Peloponnese and then the Romans. In 393 B.C. the Byzantines abolish the Olympic Games, in 1294 arrive the Franks and later the Turks. In 1827 after the sea battle in Navarino ends the Ottoman/ Egyptian occupation and Peloponnese becomes the first part of new independent Greece.

THE BEAUTIFUL MESSINIAN REGION

Messinia region, located in the southwest of Peloponnese, is a breathtaking land, full of contrasts. Sandy beaches and beautiful blue waters are combined with valleys, olive groves and mountains. At the surrounding areas, visitors can explore fascinating castles, picturesque villages with stone built houses, introducing the unique architectural tradition, and the unique wild beauty of Taygetos mountain.

KALAMATA

Kalamata, the capital of Messinian land, is a lively city holding a strong cultural and historic past. Urban reconstruction has improved the city centre, where cultural events take place and are considered of great importance, such as the Kalamata International Dance Festival which is particularly popular. The town is filled with plenty of different entertainment options; mezedopolia (small tavernas serving traditional tidbits), cafés and clubs will assure your amusement. Wander through the old town's narrow alleys, take a stroll to the main square leading to a park, the harbour and the beach.

LOUTRAKI, HERAION & HERAION (VOULIAGMENI) LAKE

Loutraki is located in the entrance of Mythical Peloponnese, only 80km away from the capital city of Greece, Athens. Loutraki is renowned for its thermal springs, famous since Antiquity, when the city was called Thermai, in honor of Thermia Artemis. The region is also visited for its Casino and appreciated for its natural mineral waters. At a short distance from Loutraki, you will encounter the cape of Heraion of Perachora also known as Melagavi. The cape stands alongside one of the largest lighthouses of the Corinthian Bay. Important relics of the early Corinthian Civilization have been discovered in the area. The sanctuary of goddess Hera, located at the depth of the harbour, near the rocks on which the current lighthouse is built, was of great importance in its time.

MESSINIA

Messinia is the land that will take your breath away! Messinia is full of contrasts and welcoming inhabitants and is only two hours drive away from Athens. Kalamata, the capital of Messinian land, is a vibrant city holding a strong cultural and historic past. Towards the south part of Messinia don't forget to visit Ancient Messene and the Ancient Theatre, which has been largely restored. While you tour Messinia visit Pylos, Nestor's Palace, Methoni and Koroni. Choose your base and discover the surrounding region. For nature enthusiasts, a stop by Neda River and waterfalls is a must. Neda is the only river in Greece that holds a woman's name and is located between Messinia and Ilaia.

NAFLIO

Greece's first capital has been built in a cove in the Argolic Gulf. The town and surrounding area are endowed with a natural beauty that has remained untouched over the centuries, and bear a pristine character, traditions and a very rich history. Nafplio is one of Greece's most beautiful towns, a favorite destination for a short distance weekend getaway. Nafplio is enveloped in a romantic atmosphere that you will feel as you get acquainted with the town's history.

CHALKIDA

Chalkida, the capital town of Evia, is also called the "weekend island"! It could very well be seen as a suburb in the outskirts of Athens as a 45-minute drive – past the impressive High Bridge – will get you there. Have a coffee break by the seafront – a favorite place among the young – and enjoy the view of Evripos straits.

SARONIC ISLANDS

The Saronic islands of Aegina, Poros, Hydra, Spetses and Methana are the most popular sailing destinations, along with the east coast of the Peloponnese and the nearest cycladic islands of Kea (Tzia) and Kythnos. In the Argosaronic gulf and along the east coast of the Peloponnese you can make use of superb sailing and well-organised port facilities in the historical cities of Nafplio and Tolo as well as marinas in Porto Heli, Astros and Leonidio.

In the serene atmosphere of the islands you will see what real Greece is all about while you mingle with the locals in tavernas and kafeneia (traditional cafés).
