2. No entry fee for teams from outside the Chinese mainland.

Competition Rules

1. Matches in each category shall be conducted in two stages: a group-stage round-robin and a knockout stage.
2. The group‑stage draw shall be conducted online via the app of Tencent Meeting.
3. For Youth category: the 8 teams will be drawn into group A and B. The top two teams from each group advance to the quarter-finals. The bottom two teams compete in the 5th-to-8th- place knockout stage.
4. For Master and Senior Category: the 16 teams in each category will be drawn into Group A, B, C and D. The top two teams from each group enter the knockout playoffs. The first place teams are located at positions 1/3/6/8 respectively. The second place teams are located at positions 5/7/2/4 respectively.
5. All matches shall be played using a one‑set match format, with no‑ad scoring. The first player to win six games wins the set. A tie‑break shall be played at 6‑6.
6. The team match order shall be Men's Doubles, Women's Doubles and Mixed Doubles. Athletes may enter multiple events. All three matches shall be completed in the group‑stage round‑robin. In the knockout stage, the first team to win two matches shall prevail.
7. Teams shall be ranked in the group‑stage round‑robin according to the number of match wins. If teams have an equal number of match wins, ranking shall be determined by the head‑to‑head result between them. If three or more teams are tied on match wins, ranking shall be based on the percentage of sets won among the relevant teams in the group, with higher percentages receiving higher rankings. Should the tie still persist, ranking shall be decided by drawing lots.

Officiating & Fair Play

1. The entire competition shall adopt the trust-based officiating system. There shall be no dedicated on-site referees on court. Calls for in, out and on-the-line balls shall be made by both sides. Court supervisors and the Referee-in-Chief shall conduct real time supervision.
2. Players must make all calls honestly and must not deliberately make incorrect calls. If a dispute cannot be resolved between both sides, either team may call for Court supervisor or the Referee−in−Chief. The decision of the Referee-in-Chief shall be final.
3. Deliberate delays, verbal altercations and bad-faith disputes are prohibited. A player who accumulates three bad-faith disputes will forfeit all results obtained in the competition and be disqualified from further participation.

Accommodation & Transportation

1. The participating teams are recommended to stay at the official hotel of the tournament, which is the International Exchange Center of Haikou University of Economics (inside the campus, within walking distance of the match venue)
2. Participants from outside the Chinese mainland are entitled to free accommodation and meals during the competition.
3. The organizing committee will provide airport and rail station shuttle services for the participating teams.
